Grant Recommendation Guidelines

Upon receipt of your grant recommendation, TCRF's research team, will complete the due diligence review process. If a grant recommendation is not able to be qualified or approved, TCRF will notify the Donor and the Donor will be given the opportunity to revise the recommendation.

Please review the following guidelines to assist you as you make your grant recommendations and to expedite your requests.

TCRF will not approve or make any grants recommended by the Donor if such grant would, in whole or in part, be used for an impermissible purpose, including, but not limited to, the following:

- I. To confer an impermissible private benefit upon any individual(s), including the donor.
- II. To be used to pay dues, membership fees, greens fees, tuition, etc.
- III. To purchase tickets to, or a meal at a benefit.
- IV. To purchase goods at a charitable auction.
- V. To fund a pre-existing, binding pledge which the donor is legally obligated to fulfill.
- VI. To be used for lobbying, political contributions, or political campaigns (501c (4) ministries do not qualify for tax deductible contributions).
- VII. To be made to the benefit of a private foundation that is not a private operating foundation (private non-operating foundations are impermissible).

In any event, TCRF reserves the right, in the exercise of its sole and absolute discretion, to approve or disapprove any recommendations for grants or distributions.

TCRF will reject grant recommendations for Impermissible Grants and for any other improper purposes. In the event TCRF discovers that a previously-made grant would constitute an Impermissible Grant, it may take remedial action to have the amount of any Impermissible Grant returned to TCRF. In addition, TCRF may require that (a) the Donor make an additional non-deductible contribution to TCRF, or (b) the Donor indemnify TCRF for any costs, fees, expenses or damages incurred by TCRF as the direct result of an Impermissible Grant made upon the recommendation of the Donor.

If you have any questions regarding the qualification of your grant recommendation, please contact a member of the Distribution Services team at 309.661.9100 or at larry@tcrfgiving.com.

Thank you,

The Christian Resource Foundation
